

Social and Personal Notes

By Mollie Runcorn

Society and club notices will be received for the daily issue at The Capital Journal editorial rooms up to 2 p. m. Main 82.

Professor and Mrs. F. E. Newberry were at home informally last night to a number of their friends, entertaining for the pleasure of Mrs. June Reed Babcock, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peetz. Mrs. Babcock delighted the guests with violin selections, Miss Greta Phillips playing with vocal selections. Professor Newberry playing the accompaniments. Guests for the evening were: Mrs. F. Newberry, Clarence Newberry, Mrs. A. Maske of Portland, who is the house guest of Mrs. Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peetz, Mr. and Mrs. Hunselman, Mr. Bronze, Mrs. Waters, Miss Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Summerville had as their guests yesterday Wallace Ryan, Nelson Allen, of Vancouver, Wash., and Louis Weeks, of Carson, Kans. The former two are prominent lumber merchants of Washington. Mr. Allen coming to Salem to visit his daughter, Miss Annie Allen, who is attending Willamette university.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church met in their church parlors Wednesday afternoon in their annual business meeting. The following officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. A. W. Buckley, president; Mrs. U. G. Lehman, vice-president; Mrs. John Mills, secretary; and Mrs. Norrell, treasurer. About forty members were present.

A marriage of interest here, especially among University of Oregon students, was that of Dean Collins of Portland and Miss Julia Winifred Mosher of Phoenix, Ariz., which took place at the home of the bride in Phoenix, September 16. After a brief stay in southern California they will return to Portland, where they will make their home. Miss Mosher became engaged to Mr. Collins last spring while visiting Mrs. R. E. Montgomery in Portland, after her return from abroad, where she was graduated last year from the Royal Conservatory of Music in Leipzig. Her father, the late Charles Lane Mosher, was formerly an editor on the Oregonian. Her great-grandfather was General Joseph Lane, the first governor of Oregon, and her grandfather, Lafayette Mosher, was formerly chief justice of the supreme bench in Oregon, a cousin of Senator Harry Lane.

Mr. Collins, who is also from Oregon, is a graduate and post-graduate from Dallas college and the University of Oregon. He has been with the Oregonian since his graduation from the state university three years ago.

Miss Myrtle Donsmore, of this city, who has been spending the summer in Redding, California, as stenographer for the Mammoth Mining company, returned to Salem yesterday. She spent a week in Portland upon her return from California but is glad to get back to the Capital City, which in her opinion is the most beautiful city in Oregon or California.

Women of the First Congregational church met in their church kitchen Wednesday, spending the day preparing delicious mince pies and making other preparations for their cafeteria to be stationed at the state fair. Congregational church women have conducted a booth at the fair for many

CHERRIANS GIVEN ROYAL WELCOME

Eugene Radiators and U. of O. Students Do the Grand and Citizens Vie With Each Other in the "Hello, Bill" Stunt.

"Put on your new gray bonnet, With Radiator on it, And come to Salem to the fair; We will meet you at the station 16 feet from the fair relation For the Cherrians will be here."

This is the song the Cherrians sang on Eugene on their arrival there yesterday, and yet the hearted folks of that five wire city welcomed them royally just as if it hadn't happened. Eugene hospitality will live long in the hearts of the Salem Cherrians as a result of the excursion made yesterday to the state university city on the Willamette valley to visit the Lane county fair. With automobile rides about the city and to the university, with banquets, toasts, inspection of exhibits at the fair, horse racing, and a tour of the university grounds, there was not a moment but what there was something doing from the start until the return late last night.

Forty uniformed Cherrians, accompanied by 55 enthusiastic cheering students, made the trip and each reports having had a splendid time. Arrival at Albany was at 11:30, where the Cherrians paraded the streets. There were few people on Albany's streets on account of a large number of citizens attending the Lane county fair at Lebanon. However, those who saw the Cherrians were appreciative and gave them an enthusiastic reception.

Arriving at the Lane county capital, they were met by the Radiators, uniformed and accompanied by the Eugene band, who led the parade to the commercial club. When the visitors arrived at the commercial club they found a large number of automobiles waiting and into them they climbed and were soon rambling about the city. The auto trip included the ascent of Skinner's Butte, which is one of the vantage points from which a large part of Lane county can be seen. The city is parking this scenic spot and has already constructed a winding macadam road to the top.

Mayor Yarn welcomed the Salemites at the banquet in the commercial club rooms. Cherrian Captain Charles Dick, ex-Mayor George Rodgers, and the Rev. H. E. Marshall, the Cherrian minister, responded to toasts. Students of the University of Oregon did their share in entertaining the Salem people and were hosts at the various fraternity houses scattered near the campus.

During their stay in the Lane county capital the Salemites advertised the state fair by scattering cards broadcast, and they made things merry by singing songs, and when the train pulled out a 7:10 o'clock train to leave the hospitable Eugeneites. Arrival in Salem was at 10 o'clock.

CHERRIANS AT EUGENE ROYALLY RECEIVED

Eugene, Or., Sept. 25.—The Salem Cherrians, their wives and a number of other citizens of the Capital City, helped to swell the crowds at the fair yesterday. They arrived in a special train of three coaches over the Oregon Electric at 11:30 o'clock and were royally welcomed by the Eugene Radiators. The Cherrians were accompanied by their brass band, and immediately after the arrival of the train a parade was formed, the Eugene band leading. The Radiators followed and the Salem band led the Cherrians, who brought up the rear. The Cherrians, in their natty white suits and hats, created a good impression. They were given the full ride of the city. After an automobile ride the Cherrians and their wives were given a luncheon at the commercial club as guests of the Radiators. They were then taken to the races at the fair, where a section of seats had been provided for them, and after the races they were taken to the university.

There were 40 Cherrians and the band members and other citizens of Salem made up a party of a little over 100.

"We have had a fine time and your fair is a good one," said Tom Kay, state treasurer, last evening before the excursion train started for the north. "The races were good and what I saw of the exhibits were very nice. The crowd was almost as big as any of the state fair crowds. I always have a good time when I am in Eugene and today was no exception."

George H. Graves, the well known commercial traveler, who visits Eugene at regular intervals, said: "I told the boys that they would be well entertained when they came to Eugene, and my prediction was fulfilled. They all say they would like to come back any old time if they are given as good a time as they were today."

The ladies of the party were shown every courtesy. Wives of the members of the Radiators accompanied them on their automobile ride over the city and to the university, and everything possible was done to make their short stay here a pleasant one.

The train pulled out between 7:30 and 8 o'clock last night, the visitors waving farewell to the large crowd of citizens who had gathered at the station to see them off. The train had a baggage car attached and the younger members of the crowd indulged in the tango and other popular dances to the strains of music from a phonograph.

The following are among the Salem excursionists: Mrs. Christine Gehl, T. B. Kay, Geo. Graves, F. L. Waters, F. E. Shaffer, John W. Roland, H. E. Marshall, Earl H. Anderson, Charles Roth, Carl D. Gabrielson, T. H. Spens, Curtis B. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, August Hueste, Paul B. Wallace, John Wallace Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burghardt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coughlin, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dock, Daniel H. Tallmadge, Warren C. Hunt, Herbert L. Steff, W. H. Sellwood, C. J. Pomeroy, J. C. Perry, Carl Abrams, D. M. Field, E. C. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott, Ben W. Oleott, W. D. Evans, Merriam Burnett, W. S. Foster, C. B. Webb, Hal D. Patton, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, J. H.

Lauterman, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, R. F. Pound, Mrs. Paul Stege, Paul H. Stege, Mrs. J. W. Staton, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Crego, Portland; W. H. Leehn, Stanley S. Marlin, Geo. F. Rodgers, Chas. Kraft, Mrs. Chas. Kraft, J. L. Stockton, Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Miss Zoe Stockton.

Today is the last day of the county fair. While the attendance has not been as large as that of last year, in most respects this year's fair has been the most successful in the history of the association. The attendance yesterday was between 5,000 and 6,000, according to the estimate of the ticket keepers, and the estimates were based largely upon the number of tickets sold. Approximately 2,900 tickets were sold at one of the stands and 2,300 at the other while those who had season tickets were about 300. The figures are short of those on the largest day last year. Yesterday will probably prove to be a better day for attendance than any day of the fair.

Eugene day brought out thousands of people who had not yet attended the fair. Stores and offices were closed and the business streets presented almost a deserted appearance. The few who kept open for business wished they had closed and gone to the fair, for they had no customers.

Yesterday's Races. The second heat of the 2:30 trot at the fair yesterday proved to be the closest finish of the afternoon, all the horses except one crossing under the wire in a bunch, Virginia Lee in the lead and Perries only a nose behind. Virginia Lee, owned by Tom Gibson and ridden by H. G. Hogoboom, won the first and third heats of the race and was given recognition as best horse. The time for the first and third heats was 2:21 for the first and 2:18 for the third. The other entries were Babe Verne, "Doc" Manday and General Lee.

Bonnie Antrim took the last two heats of the free for all, the second race on the program. Alpine came in second and Albia third. The time for the two winning heats was 2:14 for each. Latitia first, Drummer second, and Leo H. third, is the way they finished the half-mile dash. The time was 32 seconds.

The five-eighths mile dash was won by Proctor Knott with Navajo second and Sagrado third.

INTEREST IN CONTEST REMAINS UNABATED

No Change in Position of Leading Candidates Though Big Vote Is Cast

In the Capital Journal's Panama-Pacific exposition voting contest, the count of votes today showed no change in the relative standing of the candidates, except that Margaret White moved up from eighth to sixth, while several other candidates made good gains. Pearl Zion still maintains the lead, Mrs. Hibler is second, and Jean McInturff third. There is evidence, however, that the leading candidates are holding back their vote coupons and that there will be long lines of a veritable avalanche of ballots deposited in the box.

There is evidence daily of increasing interest in the contest, and the merchants whose sale checks are good for vote coupons report an increasing number of requests for them from their customers.

The trip to the great exposition with its wealth of world-wide wonders, will be the event of a lifetime for the fortunate winner, and the Capital Journal guarantees that no expense will be spared in making it a pleasant one. First class railroad fare, the best of hotel accommodations, and facilities for seeing the great fair at its best will be provided free of all charge by this paper. It will be a prize well worth working for.

The plan adopted by this paper for giving the trip does not require the contestant to sell anything. The only thing necessary to secure votes being to distribute some of Salem's most popular stores. The advertisements of these firms is run in each Friday's Capital Journal. These firms have agreed to give a sales check or receipt to every purchaser for cash or for monthly bills paid until January 1, 1915. The sales checks or receipts from these firms may be exchanged for votes at this office—one vote for every 5 cents of your purchase.

Crescent White Loaf Cake.—One-half cup butter, one cup sugar, one-half cup milk, one and one-half cups flour, one-half cup corn starch, one teaspoon Crescent baking powder, whites of three eggs, lemon or orange flavoring. Cream butter and sugar; add milk; sift baking powder and flour and add alternately with whites of eggs, which have been beaten stiff.

Cucumber Pickles.—Take 100 cucumbers not over a finger long; cover the cucumbers with boiling water and let them stand in the water until cold. Then wipe them perfectly dry with a towel. Then put in glass cans or big mouthed bottles and put on the following preparation:

One gallon cider vinegar, half teaspoon salt, one cupful sugar, one cup chopped horseradish, two tablespoonfuls of powdered alum, two tablespoonfuls of ground mustard (all cold). Put covers on, or cork. For away in cool place.

Sliced Cucumbers.—Two dozen large green cucumbers, four large onions, pare and slice, sprinkle with a small teaspoonful of salt, and let stand overnight. In the morning drain. Take two quarts cider vinegar, one-half pound sugar, two tablespoonfuls mustard seed, two tablespoonfuls celery seed, let this come to a boil. Take tablespoonful of ground mustard, three tablespoonfuls of flour, wet with cold vinegar, keep out of the vinegar and stir in while boiling, then put in the cucumbers and let come to a boil, 10 in can while hot, put covers on and seal.

Cucumber Relish.—Take two dozen table cucumbers and one dozen of onions, peel and slice, put on teaspoonful of salt, mix and let stand all night in a colander and drain. In the morning mix them with black ground pepper and vinegar, put in glass cans, seal and keep in a dry, cool place.

Pickled Apples.—Use six quarts of apples, hard, sweet ones. Pare and quarter. Almost cover with boiling water and simmer until nearly soft. To the water drained from the apples add two sticks cinnamon, one-half teaspoon each of cloves and allspice, one and one-half cups vinegar and one cup sugar. Stir and heat (not boil), pour over apples, salt again and park in sterilized fruit jars.

Cucumber Catnap.—Grate three dozen large cucumbers (if you can get the half ripe ones, so much the better)—you can remove the seeds and 12 large white onions and mix three handfuls salt with them.

Let them drain in a colander until morning; take half a teaspoonful of mustard seed (the yellow), two tablespoonfuls of whole pepper and one of ground pepper, put them in glass jars, cover with cider vinegar, (cold) seal with rover.

Keep in a dry, cool place.
